

Employer Managed Care Excess of Loss

Healthcare benefits are a substantial and growing cost for employers and plan sponsors. PartnerRe, one of the largest writers of managed care reinsurance in the U.S., is uniquely positioned to help health plans create and implement customized, self-funded employer stop loss programs in a managed care setting.

Our breadth of risk management capabilities enable us to offer superior flexibility in risk structure, coupled with outstanding marketing support. We review each client's capabilities and market dynamics to collaboratively develop a self-funded program capitalizing on the client's strengths and customize our excess of loss program to create real market differentiation.

We value long-term relationships and work closely and collaboratively with our employer, plan sponsors, and managed care clients to assist them in navigating market challenges and implementing effective health risk management programs.
